

Stanford Youth Solutions

Therapeutic Behavioral Services (TBS)

Program Logic Model

Overarching Goal:

Therapeutic Behavioral Services (TBS) is a supplemental mental health service to provide one-on-one, short term therapeutic contact for a specified period of time in order to maintain the youth's placement at the lowest possible level. Services will resolve specific target behaviors in order to prevent unnecessary residential placements, psychiatric hospitalizations, and discharges to higher levels of care.

